

Lehigh Valley Pointer and Setter Club

By CARL BERGEN

OUR committee came together and got this trial organized and run in fine fashion. Plenty of birds and some really fine dogs combined with great weather made for an enjoyable weekend at the nicely groomed York Pointer and Setter trial grounds.

OUR BIG BULLY
Second in the Open Shooting Dog Stake

Joe Cincotta came over from New Jersey and left his own trial to judge our Open Shooting Dog Stake with another experienced judge, Brent Neely. Dom Preite gets a thank you for staying over and helping to judge our Open Derby. Joanne and John Perry drove down from Connecticut to judge our Amateur stakes. Many thanks to them all for their well received judicial placements.

Dave McKay and Roger Dvorak helped with the bird planting. Ernie Saniga, Glenna Dvorak, all added to the organization, and Connie Mensch kept the kitchen moving and prevented us all from starving with some wonderful food choices.

Our thanks to the professional handlers who supported us with some exciting performances — Mike Tracy, Jeanette Tracy and Dom Preite. It is getting harder each year on the weekend trials to continue to hold these stakes and we all know where we will be if they cease to exist. The support of our pros is critical to our survival and our survival is critical to theirs as well.

Come join us for another full and fun weekend in March. Happy holidays to everyone and much success in 2011.
