CENTRAL ALBERTA POINTER AND SETTER CLUB

The Alberta Prairie Amateur All-Age Classic was cancelled due to insufficient entries. The entry in the Amateur Shooting Dog Classic was small but the quality did not suffer. The Shooting Dog Classic started Monday morning; it was misty, but the rain had stopped.

First was Manteo's Mattie Blaylock, owned and handled by Paul Falkowsky of Calgary, Alberta. Runner-up was Prairie Fire Peg, owned and handled by Sig Guggenmoos of Sherwood Park, Alberta.

Strut's Rambling Man (Steen) won the inaugural All-Age Classic last year. Rambling Man laid down a huge ground race; each time you thought "there he goes, he's thinking all-age," he responded to his handler. After a second unproductive at 55 Steen elected to pick up. Grouse Wing Miss Izzi, a nice moving setter, was uncooperative. Smith had difficulty getting her to take the front. The "tug of war" carried on until Izzi failed a stop to flush on sharptails.

Paul Falkowsky's Manteo's Mattie Blaylock ran a creditable generally well directed shooting dog race with a stop to flush on a sharptail. Twelve-year old setter Prairie Fire Peg (Guggenmoos) showed what experience and heart can do. She spent 50 minutes making casts of a quarter to a half mile, always to logical places causing Judge Vincett to ask, "What in the world did you feed that dog last night?" She had to be ridden for a couple of times due to deafness in one ear and impaired hearing in the other but it was clear she wanted to go with her handler, and she would reassume the front. The wetness and cold eventually slowed her to 300 yard casts in the last few minutes. No birds, but a memorable run on which to end a career.

Manteo's Duke (Turner) had the course to himself in the last brace. Untypical of Duke, his race was circumscribed. He spent the hour working bluff edges but his journeyman effort too went unrewarded by birds.

Northwest Irish Field Trial Club

By FRAN SEAGREN

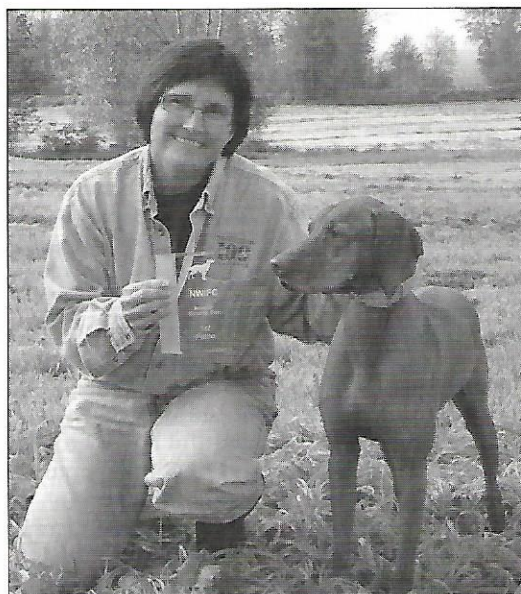

THE Northwest Irish Field Trial Club held an Amateur Walking trial October 2 at Carlson's Canine Country Club in Fall City, Wash. For many of us this was our first American Field trial. It was a great learning experience for me. Craig O'Brine and I want to thank all who helped with advice and guidance along the way.

We were fortunate to have experienced judges Larry Floyd and Mike Eades who were helpful, friendly and informative.

The day started out foggy and the grass was wet and heavy from the previous night's rain. Our bird planter Tim Keohane released chukars for each brace. Tim's wife Paula rode each brace and did an excellent job of recording the trial. With the fields being as wet as they were some of the birds had a hard time flying, which gave the dogs quite a challenge.

Scott Seagren marshalled and he kept things moving smoothly for the entire trial.

We had lots of great food available all day and nobody went hungry. Carolyn O'Brine was our "food captain" who organized the meals from breakfast through dinner. Pro trainer Jim Cochran, who also "caught" the main course, halibut, cooked our delicious dinner. We had french fries, salads, refreshments and dessert to round off the meal. It was a great way to wrap up our trial. Even though most of us are new to this game, everybody had a good time and we are looking forward to our next American Field trial.

The winner of the Shooting Dog Stake was five-year-old Vizsla Rudy, owned and handled by Diane Nelson. Rudy had three nice solid points and a long stylish back. Craig O'Brine handled the second and third place dogs, both Irish setters. Rachel, owned by Craig, took second, and Sierra, owned by Patrick O'Brine, placed third. Setter Tatoosh, owned and handled by Mark Leadbetter, pointed two birds and was steady to wing and shot on a tough flush to win the Derby. Our Puppy winner was Daisy, setter owned and handled by Doug Koenig. Daisy hunted out front and strong the entire 20 minutes.
