Route 7, Raleigh, N. C., vice-president & Mrs. Thos. Moffat, sec. treas

Plans are now complete according to trial chairman, Cliff Bean for our Spring Classic, April 9 and 10.

Judges for the Kildeer Plains area event will be Harry Evans and V. V. Van Divort. Some of you may recall Van from the September trial also at Kildeer in 1962.

Motel Reservations should be made if you haven't already at the Evergreen Motel, Upper Sandusky, O., to be with the crowd. It also makes it handy for the drawing and dinner on Friday and Sat. at the Evergreen Restaurant.

Drawing time will be 9 p.m. All stakes to be drawn at this time. No post entries accepted in any stake. The club reserves the right to add other judges for the supporting stakes if the pressure of entries in the trial warrants or threatens the running time of the championship event. Announced judges will ride the championship and such other stakes as running time permits. Championship open of course to Irish setters only. One hour heats on contiguous courses will be run with APTCA winner's certificate to all stake winners if amateur handled.

Trial management reserves the right to limit entries to running time available. Not responsible for accidents during running of trial.

Fees are $8 for Buppy and Derby stakes; Amateur Shooting Dog stake is $12 and Championship is $20.

You may mail entries to F. C. Bean on any entry form or wait until the drawing. Remember Upper Sandusky is located right at the junction of U. S. 23 and U. S. 30.

We sincerely hope you can join us for the event!

After commenting about not receiving The Hunting Dog magazine last month, I received a box full last week. Cheers for Herm David and his excellent comments on the Irish AKC trials! If you haven't read it, do so! And I'll bring along the magazines for you to sample -- thank you, Herm.

In contrast read the mix-mash mumble of David Duffey in April issue of Outdoor Life! He titles it Great Day for the Irish. First he says they're wonderful again in field then he tears them apart & criticism runs rather wildly on. This is after judging of Midwest regional trial for Irish. His comments of difference of trials of AKC and FDSB ~~dog~~ bear some accuracy however. Who's going to answer?

Warren Johnson is trial chairman again for the Irish Setter Club of Minnesota. Their date is April 23 and 24 at the U. of M. Research Center Grounds, (is this safe?) Rosemount, Minn. Judges will be Carl Robeson of St. Paul and Bill Harley of Wauke, Iowa. Stakes will be Open derby, All age, Puppy and Shooting Dog. Quail will be planted on back course and in birdfield. Horses will be furnished to handlers as we do in the National. They also will have a dog wagon for spectators. Drawing will be at 9 p.m. on 4-22 at The Golden Steer Motel, So. St. Paul. Contact Warren, 3539 Tonka-wood Road, Hopkins, Minn. Phone 938-7077 if you can support this.

Northwest Field Trial Association is also having an April trial. This will be the 16th and 17th and contact is Jack LeClair, St. Paul for the Rosemount event.

News from the Schnettlers isn't good! Joanie S. is in the hospital with a broken leg as a result of a riding mishap and will be in traction for 8 weeks. Fortunately a neighbor found her by chance lying out in their naturally freezing Minnesota temp. As father tells it she had been riding unknown to him across all the neighboring farms, at will, jumping all and every fence. Now sister, Lynne, is trying to keep the beast (so it sounds to me, though I'm no judge of horses of course) in shape for Joanie to still ride in the State Fair. How thankful though that she was found before dark and further complications! Our best!

On brighter side we laughed at the senior Schnettlers running into Jim Flythe training dogs at Pine Bluff on a Sunday, yet! Boy, that guy's out to beat you! And how a couple of fellows I know would have loved to have been there, too!

Ed Johnson converted a few to red ones at Bloomfield a week ago by placing Double Jet first!!! She really looked great. Of course, Dr. Bloom and Ed cheering probably gave that extra spurt. Someone asked where they were from that they knew there weren't any red dogs like that around in their county! Ha!

From Ned LeGrande we learn that Si Rishel of West Conshohocken, Pa., (is that name for real?) has a good one coming along with Paul Long. Many of you remember Paul as the trainer of Rufus McTybe and several of Ned's best. We'd like to see him!

Would also like to see working a young Doc Miller pup that is bigger than any Cliff has had around in quite some time. It seems it swung around and twisted his shoulder a bit out the other day. This one & another from same litter he reports are starting to look like bird dog Dwight Haddock (I left his first name off mem. list) was forced to have their D Mar's Dixie put to sleep due to cancer which is always so hard to do. She had a number of good wins in the Nebraska Husker's trials, 1st in gun dog stake in April and 1st in October gun stake so they had had a lot of enjoyment out of her wins as well as her good company and faithfulness! Their other trial prospect is with Roy Jines in Alabama so they won't make Ohio trial. Maybe fall?
